My name is David Cardenas, and I am a fleet technician for the City and County of Denver's Police Fleet. I currently hold about 3 and a half years of experience of automotive and heavy equipment diagnosis and repair work. I have performed work ranging from complete engine/transmission removal and reinstall to preventative maintenance (tires, oil changes, filters). I am always willing to learn and be educated on something new or even a refresh on something that I already know. I am also, currently learning to code/program at the University of Denver.
